

Account Manager

When you are in our Account Manager role, you get a varied sales experience. You will get out there and meet contractors at their job sites, and also actively maintain our current customer base.

Use your industry knowledge to see the Central Difference to both new and existing customers. Your ability to show them what they need to succeed in their business will be a factor in your career success at Central.

Who is Central?

Central Turf & Irrigation Supply is the largest family-owned and operated, multinational supplier of irrigation, landscape, agronomic, sustainable products, lighting, hardscape, and grounds care equipment—with more than 60 locations in the U.S. and Canada. Established in 1990, Central is a solution-focused partner for residential and commercial landscape professionals, offering the largest quantity of in-stock inventory in the green industry. For the contractor, by the contractor—Central provides professional and business development resources from large-scale design services and technical support lines to training and marketing services.
